Call for Guest Facilitators: AuthorAID Online Course in Research Writing

1st April to 12th May 2016 (6 weeks)

Dear trainer,

AuthorAID are planning an Online Course in Research Writing from 1st April to 12th May. The course is designed for early career researchers and will have open enrolment: http://www.authoraid.info/en/news/details/1024/.

We ran a similar course back in October/November 2015, which you can read about here: http://www.authoraid.info/en/news/details/1007/.

To help the course run smoothly we would like to form a small team of guest facilitators again. The guest facilitator role is honorary, so we will not be able to offer any payment, but we will be awarding a certificate and digital badge.

What skills do I need?
You should have recent experience in writing and publishing papers and experience or keen interest in online learning and teaching. The online course will take place on our Moodle platform.

What we would like you to do

- Initiate discussions on the forums on relevant topics
- Reply to the participants' posts on the forums

What you are free to do

- View everything in the course
- Go through the participants' work in the activities
- Share your impressions of the course with your colleagues

What you agree not to do without permission from INASP

- Participate directly in the course activities (these are meant for the course participants)
- Evaluate the course participants' work formally

If you would like to help, please email us and say why you are interested in being a guest facilitator and how many hours a week you can commit.

We will select a small team of guest facilitators for the course and will let you know as soon as possible if you have been selected.

Further facilitation guidelines and support on using the INASP Moodle website will be given for those who are selected as guest facilitators

We look forward to hearing from you.
